Ron and Nancy Tour North Dakota's Camp Grassick

Ron and Nancy were welcomed at Camp Grassick. This is North Dakota's camp for children and adults with special needs. The director, Dan Mimnaugh, gave us a tour of the camp facilities on Thursday. We, along with a group of North Dakota Elks including the State President Jim Gibb and his wife Diane and incoming President Larry Larson and his wife Phyllis, enjoyed the tour and delicious lunch with the campers and the staff.
