Would you believe that there are over 1,500 museums offering free admission to active duty military personnel and their families from Memorial Day, May 30, 2011, through Labor Day, September 5, 2011?

That is correct – check out the following URL:

<http://www.nea.gov/national/bluestarmuseums/index2011.php>

There is a map on which you can click on any state and the result will be a list of participating museums.

I realize that the time for this program is about to expire, but, hey, if you know active duty military personnel and their families in your Elks Lodge or maybe not in your Elks Lodge, now is the time.
