

Danville 227 Announces Four Scholarship Winners for 2016

Danville 227 is pleased to announce the following scholarship winners for the Class of 2016. Each scholarship is for $750

Caroline N. Davis, daughter of Donnie and Caroline Davis of Milton, North Carolina, has been awarded the Landon Chilton Memorial Scholarship for 2016. She is graduating from Westover Christian Academy in Danville, and will attend Averett University in the fall.

Jarrett W. Stowe, son of Glen and Terri Stowe, of Dry Fork, Virginia, has been awarded the J.P. Musselman and Veteran's Memorial Scholarship for 2016. He is a graduate of Tunstall High School in Dry Fork, and will attend Princeton University this fall.

Caleb A. Koch, son of Geoff and Dawn Koch of Danville, has been awarded the H.D. "Butch" Lily Memorial Scholarship for 2016. He is graduating from Galileo Magnet High School in Danville, and will attend Cornell University in the fall. In addition, Caleb has been awarded a Virginia Elks Association Scholarship in the amount of $1000.

Kellie A. Knight, daughter of Tim and Tracy Knight of Blanch, North Carolina, has been awarded the Oscar A. Payne Memorial Scholarship for 2016. She is graduating from Westover Christian Academy, and will attend North Carolina State University in the fall.

Congratulations to all of the Class of 2016.