

Front Royal 2382 Holds Americanism Essay/Scholarship Night

Thursday May 12 Front Royal 2382 held their annual Americanism Essay/Scholarship Awards night.

No essays were received for Division II this year, but lots of entries for Division I from several local schools made it a hard decision for the Scholarship Committee.

(l-r), Payton Sullivan, John Shultzaberger, Selissa Blakely, Ashley Sears, Lemuel McKenney, Alyssa Compton and Maya Williams

John Shultzaberger and Lodge Americanism Chairman Karen Campbell

John Shultzaberger from Warren County Middle School received first place honors and $100 from the Lodge. He also received a plaque for placing second in the State Americanism Essay contest.

The following were Lodge finalists from E. Wilson Morrison Elementary School:

Payton Sullivan, placing second and receiving $75

Jose Segovia, placing third and receiving $50 (He was unable to attend)

Maya Williams, Alyssa Compton, and Ashley Sears received Honorable Mention Certificates and $25 each.

Selissa Blakely with ER Dennis Henline

The Lodge awarded four $1,000 College Scholarships to local high school students. From Skyline High School and attending were Selissa Blakely and Lemuel C. McKenney, III.

Receiving Lodge scholarships from Warren County High were Katherine Davis and Jacob Kennedy. Both had prior commitments and could not attend.

The winners and their families were served a spaghetti dinner and had a great evening.

Lemuel McKenney with Dennis Henline