

Hampton Lodge 366 recently presented Elk of the Year, Citizen of the Year, and Officer of the Year honors to three deserving people

Hampton Elks Lodge #366
 Citizen-of-the-Year
 Wilma Goodwin

Wilma Goodwin is presented the Grand Lodge Citizen-of-the-Year Award during the ceremonies on Saturday, March 19th, in the Lodge. Wilma is recognized not only for her countless hours in support of the Veterans' programs of the Lodge, but also the very large amount of time in preparing the main hall for bingo Mondays and Wednesdays for many years. Presenting the award is Exalted Ruler Phil Goodwin (Wilma's Son).

Congratulations, Wilma

Hampton Elks Lodge #366
 Officer of the Year
 Bill Lenk, Est Lect Knight

Esteemed Lecturing Knight Bill Lenk (I) was named Officer of the Year in a ceremony in the Lodge on March 19th. Exalted Ruler Phil Goodwin presented Bill with his Grand Lodge Plaque in honor of the hard work Bill has done as a Chair Officer, House Committee Chairman and Treasurer and for additional work with ER Phil in maintaining the proper bingo paperwork that is required by the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Congratulations, Bill

Hampton Elks Lodge #366
 Elk-of-the-Year
 James "Jimmy" Frasca

Elk James "Jimmy" Frasca is presented his Elk-of-the-Year Pin by his Mom, Susan Viehweg, during ceremonies in the Lodge on March 19th. Jimmy was selected for this honor by the Elk-of-the-Year Committee for his dedication to the selling of instant bingo products for the past few years. Jimmy is liked by all of his customers and is a very dedicated and hard worker for the Lodge. PFR Joe Francis presented Jimmy with his Grand Lodge Plaque in honor of his service to the Elks.

Congratulations, Jimmy
