Loudoun 2406 Gives Safety Glasses to Area Agency on Aging

On February 14, 2011 Geoff Cox, Exalted Ruler of Lodge 2406, presented one dozen safety glasses to the Loudoun County Department of Parks, Recreation & Community Services Area Agency on Aging.

The Department of Parks, Recreation and Community Services provides recreational, educational and cultural services for residents of all ages through park programs, community centers, day care service, before and after school programs, sports leagues for youth and adults, programs for people with special needs, and the Area Agency on Aging.
