

Roger,

I have just learned that Mary Dean, Secretary of the Elks National Home, passed away about two weeks ago from lung cancer. Would you please put it somewhere on the web page because she had many friends from all over the State of Virginia who would like to know this.

Her close friends were Helen Tankersley and Marie Powers from the Home. We called them the Three Musketeers, affectionately.

Thank you,
Bobbie Deese