

Northern Virginia Lodges Work Together to Send Kids to Camp

Arlington-Fairfax Lodge 2188 along with Alexandria Lodge 758, Loudoun Lodge 2406, Front Royal Lodge 2382 and Winchester Lodge 867 sent 53 girls to the Virginia Elks Youth Camp for a week of various activities including swimming, canoeing, sports, and a ropes course. The Lodges got together and rented a bus and also provided bag lunches for the girls to eat on the way down to the camp.

Submitted by Barbara Marshall, Arlington-Fairfax Lodge 2188 Youth Camp Chairman
Photo by Lisa Stevens