

Portsmouth-Chesapeake Lodge No. 82 holds Cornhole Tournament for Elks National Foundation and Roc Solid Foundation.

Pictured are George Hartsell, III, and Greg Ohmsen, Lodge members and participants in the Cornhole Tournament held at the Lodge on Sunday, September 4th, 2011. The event, organized and run by member Jeff Crowe, was held to raise money for Roc Solid Foundation and the Elks National Foundation. There were over 60 contestants and guests in attendance for this very successful event. There will be additional tournaments at the Lodge on Sundays during football season. All Elks are invited to come by and watch the games on our new high definition flat-screen TVs and participate in a rousing tournament on the boards, at Portsmouth-Chesapeake Lodge No. 82, where fraternity has found a home.
