

Virginia Elks Association News

February 20, 2012

Roanoke 197 is Proud of its Hoop Shoot Winner

Reed Pendleton of Roanoke

L to R: Donnie Angel, Southeast DDGER;
Reed Pendleton; Don White, Central DDGER

Reed Pendleton of Roanoke (Cave Spring), representing Roanoke Lodge 197, won the boys 8-9 division of the VEA Free Throw Contest. He and the other winners will progress to the Hoop Shoot Regionals, to be held in Frederick, Maryland, on March 17th, competing against athletes from Maryland, Delaware, DC, North Carolina and West Virginia. Winners of the Regionals will progress to the Nationals, which will be held in Springfield, MA in April.

The VEA Free Throw Contest was held Sunday February 19th in Charlottesville VA at St. Anne's Belfield School. Reed represented the Roanoke, VA Elks Lodge #197.

He made 23 out of 25 attempts at the Roanoke Local Hoop Shoot, 21 out of 25 attempts at the District level in Collinsville, VA on January 28th, and made 20 out of 25 attempts in the state finals.

The Roanoke Lodge is proud of Reed and wishes him the best in the Regionals!

Submitted by Chuck Garst