

Virginia Elks Association News

August 26, 2015

Staunton 351 Donates Safety Glasses to Local Schools

Staunton 351 will donate over 2200 pairs of Safety Glasses to schools in Augusta County and Staunton City, as well as to the Valley Career and Technical Center.

In the photo above, taken on August 21, Fifth Grade students of Stephen Peters and Dwight Hoyard model their new safety glasses in preparation for launching paper rocket launchers.

Those in the photo are, from left to right, Front Row: Shalechia Pryor, Troy Tovar, Samantha Connard, and Chris Eakin. Back Row: Staunton 351 Safety Glasses Chair Paul Hiveley, Jaylin Redman, Madi Gilmartin, Quenton Evans, Tyler Booth, and Superintendent of Staunton City Schools Dr. Linda Reviea.