

Lodge 351 Proud to Help Buy School Supplies

On August 10, 2011, Tamar Grier (left), Social Worker for the Staunton Salvation Army, accepts a check for $250 from Suzanne Meeks, Community Activities Chair Person for Staunton Elks Lodge 351. The donation will be used to purchase school supplies for economically disadvantaged children in the Staunton area. The Salvation Army receives no funding from the U.S. Government or the United Way. It relies solely on the donations of individuals and organizations to fund its charitable works.
