

Waynesboro 2270 Holds Flag Day Ceremony and Veterans Dinner

Attending Veterans and Lodge Officers

On June 19, Waynesboro 2270 held its Flag Day Ceremony and Veterans Appreciation Dinner. The ceremony was highlighted by the recognition of attending veterans, as well as the moving talk by Lodge member retired Naval Captain, Denny Bird. Also during the ceremony, a special presentation was made on behalf of the Grand Lodge and Waynesboro Lodge 2270 to Carol Southers and Lodge member Johnny Wood. The plaque they were presented states "To the family of Lance Corporal Daniel T. Morris for your supreme sacrifice." The presentation was made by PER Lewie Blessing and great-uncle of Lance Corporal Morris. This was a very solemn and moving ceremony that included beautiful music by member Charles Snaith and Carol Southers. Following was a dinner that was enjoyed by those attending.
